

February Ideas

For those of you who send Valentines to a youth, how about including a note that you will take this youth on either a tree walk since this is an excellent time of the year to really see the size, shape and bark of the trees or a bird watching and listening walk as this month is the beginning of the birds pairing off.